

Scholarships for Undergraduate Studies

The University of Cyprus (UCY) is pleased to announce the offering to non-EU citizens, of thirteen scholarships (50% of tuition fees) for undergraduate studies (does not apply to the UCY Medical School), starting in September 2022. Applications are now open.

Each scholarship will be valid for a four (4) year study duration*.

Successful candidates will have to follow a one-year Greek Language course at the UCY School of Modern Greek (at their own expense), so as to acquire a B2 level certificate before starting their undergraduate studies.

A. REQUIREMENTS FOR NON-EU STUDENTS

- Being graduates of a Secondary School, recognized by the appropriate education authority of their country
- Certificate of good knowledge of Greek language
- Certificate of citizenship
- Copy of identity card or passport
- All candidates must meet the grade requirements that are defined by the UCY Departments:

https://www.ucy.ac.cy/fmweb/documents/UndergraduateOffice/2021/KRITIRIA_GCE_Ena_12.2021.pdf

B. VISA ENTRY PERMIT

For all non- EU candidates, who will study at the University of Cyprus, a visa/ entry permit to the Republic of Cyprus is required. The visa / entry permit is issued by the Civil and Migration Department of the Republic of Cyprus.

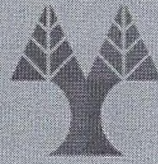

C. TEMPORARY RESIDENTS' PERMIT

Foreign students are needed to acquire a student visa for entry to Cyprus or to renew a temporary resident's permit in the Republic of Cyprus. For more details regarding immigration requirements and visa issues please visit the webpage www.ucy.ac.cy/internationalsupport/ or send an email to Internationalsupport@ucy.ac.cy.

For further details regarding the application process you may contact the UCY Academic Affairs and Student Welfare Service, Tel.: +35722894021, email: fm@ucy.ac.cy

* In case a scholarship bearer does not complete his/her studies within the four (4) year period (8 semesters), his/her scholarship will be terminated and no further contribution will be made towards the completion of his/her studies.
